IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS

GENERAL SECRETARIAT

Increased Representation of Labour on Public Bodies.

ORDER NO. S. R. 5143-5227—L. W. 41-44-9, DATED BANGALORE, THE 30TH APRIL 1946.

Representations have been made time and again about the desirability of giving increased representation for labour interest in various official and quasi-official bodies and committees. Government have always examined such suggestions with great sympathy. They have also taken note of the recent trends in this direction and the fact that the Government of India have also been taking steps as a matter of general policy, to secure increased representation of labour on such official and non-official bodies. Government observe that the Department of Labour in Mysore State has already adequate representation on the various committees that are functioning in the department. Representation has also been given to labour in the Representative Assembly and Legislative Council.

Government are therefore pleased to direct that the principle of giving adequate representation to labour on various committees be recognised and kept in view while proposing nominations to various ad-hoc committees, local and rural bodies. For this purpose, the Labour Associations recognised under the Labour Act may also be made use of, as far as possible, to ensure that suitable men are selected who can be trusted to safeguard the interests of labour while serving on such committees.
